

Aquia Harbour Women's Club Scholarship Guidelines

- 1) The Aquia Harbour Women's Club will award one $750 scholarship annually.
- 2) In order to qualify for consideration, a student must meet the following criteria:
 - a. Be a graduating female senior from Brooke Point High School, an accredited private school, or home school and reside in Aquia Harbour.
 - b. Plan to attend a national or state-accredited college or university, junior college, or school of nursing the academic year following graduation.
 - c. Apply for the Aquia Harbour Women's Club Scholarship. The application consists of completing and returning the enclosed application with the required information to the school's counseling office or to the Aquia Harbour Women's Club Scholarship Committee by Monday, April 19, 2021 (email address included at the end of this application).
- 3) Applicant must have a 3.0 GPA average or better. The scholarship recipient will be selected based on the following criteria:
 - a. The primary considerations will be given to the student's overall academic record, service to the school and community, and financial need
 - b. Evaluation will be given to the student's character, citizenship, integrity, responsibility, leadership, and personal motivation
- 4) To be considered for the scholarship, a student must submit the following information:
 - a. A completed application
 - b. One written recommendation from an academic teacher, activity sponsor, or person unrelated to the applicant (i.e., employer, neighbor, minister)
 - c. Complete the essay questions listed at the end of the application
- 5) Recipients of any full scholarships, including National Merit, ROTC, and appointments to any service academy are not eligible for this scholarship award.
- 6) The Aquia Harbour Women's Club Scholarship Committee will select the scholarship recipient. No individual who has a daughter or relative applying for this scholarship shall be eligible to serve on this committee.
- 7) The Scholarship Committee will select one recipient and an alternate should the primary recipient become ineligible for any reason.
- 8) The scholarship will be remitted directly to the academic institution upon notification that the recipient has been granted admission and registered. Said scholarship is reserved to defray the expenses of tuition, books, and academic fees. The recipient will forfeit said scholarship if she is not registered by August 1 of the year of selection unless an extension is granted by the Aquia Harbour Women's Club Board of Directors.
